

HANDICAP SAFETY TRAINING TO A CAREER

Energy, Safety and Occupational Health Management Center Invited as a lecturer Training program - trainees with disabilities to prepare in the workplace with Khun Amornthep Khumsuk and Ms. Janewit Tipprasert Lecture on the topic "Safety system at work" On October 12, 2021, this training was held for those who attended the training. Obtain sufficient knowledge and skills to perform tasks related to office work. and prepare before entering the workplace including how to behave in the event of an accident or emergency during work This activity was organized online through the ZOOM program according to the principles of social distancing and the operation of the KMUTT New Normal principle. The training was attended by more than 30 people. This activity supports the creation of sustainable universities in line with the SDGs 2030 Sustainable Development Goals in Goal 4: Promoting appropriate and equitable learning. in various skills related to work performance and goal 10 to reduce inequality Promote social protection for equality.