

STUDENTS LED “GREEN HEART” TO FIRST PRIZE IN SUN THAILAND 2020

King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi represented by “Green Heart” student group presented their project: “KMUTT Volunteer Ants fights against COVID-19: opportunity for food sustainability from a crisis” triumphed and received first prize for student sustainability project for “Sustainable Campus by SDGs in Actions: Best Practice Sharing & Learning Experience” on 4 December 2021 at King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi, Bangkhunthian campus. The Green Heart student group presented their project results, which they participated in planning out the operation to encourage learning through promotion of sustainable consumption. The student group were also the major driving force in the project.

Green Heart's work not only contributed to sustainable consumption in the KMUTT community but also sown the seeds of sustainability to the surrounding communities with perceptible outcome. The team, consisting of Akarapan Taweesak, Wuttichai Puengrat, and Anusara Tangpeerasit with Nayarat Wongwate, Thanakarn Koomphai, Kittinat Kaewthong, and student financial support work group as project advisors throughout the campaign.

