

EESH CENTER ORGANIZED A TRAINING WORKSHOP ON ENERGY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM, ENVIRONMENT AND SAFETY AT KMUTT BANGKHUNTHIAN.

The Center for Energy, Environment, Safety and Health (EESH Center) organized a professional service workshop for staff and contractors of Bangkhuntien Maj. Gen. Bangkhuntien in the new normal format on February 19, 2022. Understand KMUTT New Normal Energy Management System Waste Management Safety Standards Research laboratories in Thailand and how to stop emergencies on campus to cleaners, security guards, maintenance workers and garden attendants. The faculty of speakers from the EESH Center and green heart leadership students will be educated on the subject. This will lead to the same practice for the entire university. Supporting sustainable green universities This activity is organized in accordance with the principles of social distancing and the implementation of kmutt new normal principles.

