

"NET ZERO ENERGY BUILDING: SUSTAINABLE ENERGY MANAGEMENT IN KMUTT, BANGKHUNTHIAN CAMPUS" WON BEST POSTER PRESENTATION

Payoong Toomnim and Thanakorn Seuathong, were awarded "Best Poster Presentation" prize in the topic of "Sustainable Energy" from their article, "Net Zero Energy Building: Sustainable Energy Management in KMUTT, Bangkhunthian campus: Case Study for Net Zero Energy Building" The researcher team comprised Phadoong Boonpetch, Seubsakul Samermuean, Phayoong Toomnim, Thanakorn Seuathong, and Pattana Rakkwamsook members of Office of Physical Resource and Environmental KMUTT Bangkhunthian campus. The presentation was made during the Sustainable University Network of Thailand meeting 2020 held between 3-4 December 2020 at King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi, Bangkhunthian campus held by Sustainable University Network of Thailand as a discussion and sharing forum of knowledge, experience, and operation for sustainable development that contributed to set the universities as examples sustainable development. The article presented the results of the sustainable energy development operation to encourage all parties to participate in energy usage reduction and use the knowledge gained within their organization for efficient corporate energy management which will contribute to the organization's success in energy management according to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) 2030 number 7: support clean energy, number 11: develop sustainable cities and communities, number 13: reduce impact to global climate, and number 17: build sustainability network.